RE: House Bill 914, adds Chapter 176 to the Local Government Code, imposing new disclosure and reporting obligations on vendors and potential vendors to local government entities (this includes school districts) beginning January 1, 2006.

Dear Customer:

This is our response to the new disclosure and reporting obligations regarding the Conflict of Interest Questionnaire required of HB 914.

Brookshire Brothers is a vendor of your organization.

In response to this new requirement, we have enclosed our Business Conduct Policy for your review.

Our business affiliation with your organization is as follows:

- We provide goods and services to your organization
- We provide donations to your organization
- We currently have the following contract(s) in place with your organization. (see attached)

Our Company has incorporated required employee disclosures in accordance with our Business Conduct Policy to ensure compliance with the Conflict of Interest Questionnaire reporting requirements of your entity. As a result, the following disclosures were made by our employees in regards to business relationships within your organization.

If nothing is indicated above, no disclosures were reported by our employees in regards to your organization.

Sincerely,

*Caula Morgan, CPA
